Mother Is Followed by a Small Reception.

room of the Majestic.

Adele Grenet, daughter of Mr.

Miss Adele Grenet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Grenet of 214 West Ninety-second street, was married last evening to William Mills Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Stevenson of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Stevenson of the Hotel Majestic. The Rev. S. F. Boyle of St. Francis Navier's Church performed the ceremony.

The bride had her sister. Miss Constance Golders in the trenches. Miss Maxwell has set to music the anonymous poem "Kitchener." which recently went the rounds of the English papers, and Miss Collier will recite it to her accompaniment.

Never was there such a chance to hear all the theatrical stars for the price of a bazaar ticket and help the Allies at the same time. Ethel Barrymore will appear to-day in the Cafe de Paris tea garden, likewise John Barry-more and Ruth Draper. While listening to them the visitor can eat food cooked on the spot by Prince Troubetzkoy and served by Jane Cowl, Phyllis Neilson-Terry, Mrs. James K. Hackett and other fair waitresses. And they have Miss Constance Collier and Miss Elsa. Maxwell have arranged a regular British programme for Thursday, when well known singers will give a number of the songs sung by solders in the trenches. Miss Maxwell has set to music the anonymous poem "Kitchener." which recently went the rounds of the English programme for Thursday, when well known singers will give a number of the songs sung by solders in the trenches. Miss Maxwell has set to music the anonymous poem "Kitchener." which recently went the rounds of the English papers, and Miss Collier will recite it to her accompaniment.

Never was there such a chance to hear all the theatrical stars for the price of a bazaar ticket and help the Allies at the same time. Ethel Barrymore and Ruth Draper. While listening to them the visitor can eat food cooked on the spot by Prince Troubetzkoy and served by Jane Cowl, Phyllis Neilson-Terry Mrs Jane Cowl, Phyllis Neilson-Terry Mrs

Miss Ruth A. McKenna, daughter of Mrs. J. McCauley McKenna of 15 West Fifty-fifth street, was married to Edwin Thomas, Holmes, Jr., yesterday afternoon in the ballroom of the Gotham by the Rev. William H. Owens of Trinity Church, Mount Vernon. The bride's attendants were Mrs. Franklyn W. Hutton, Mrs. Harry S. Durand and Miss Lucy V. Gordon. Harry S. Durand and Miss Lucy bazaar, among them Miss Flora Zabeile, the Misses Gulbenkian and Mr. and Mrs. Mehtsian, editors of the New Armenian paper ever busined in New York.

To see that in the tea garden everything goes all right.

Yesterday was Armenian day, and a big audience gathered on the main floor around the band stand in the afternoon to hear Shah Mouradin of the Paris Opera House singing his native folk-songs. Many Armenians visited the bazaar, among them Miss Flora Zabeile, the Misses Gulbenkian and Mr. and Mrs. Mehtsian, editors of the New Armenia.

Four Volumes, Illustrate the first English Armenian paper ever published in New York. Eayne and Hermann Steinbruegge, small reception followed.

Police Inspector's Son Takes Boonton to tirl as His Bride.

Boovers, N. J., June 12—Blessing from Pone Bouediet were bestowed on the Son Sanguier of All West 118th street. Mass an Overland care, given to Miss Mary Rarbara Relevant of Control of the Son Sanguier of Son S

Josephine Meskill of Montclair, flower girl. Mr. Schmittberger's man was his brother, Oswald hmittherger, and the ushers wer alexander Regan, Joseph Conlon an der Regan, Joseph Conlon and Schmittberger, all of New York, and George Richter and Charles Kramer

Weinberger-Hecht.

ASSAIC, N. J., June 12 .- Harry H. and Mrs. Solomon Hecht of New were married last night at the fargules of New York officiated. Miss t. who was graduated last week Barnard College, was attended by oraine Kaplan and Mrs. Lillian organisht of New York. Dr. Joseph J. er was best man. Following the Mr. and Mrs. Weinberger left a six weeks trip South. They will

W. H. Hunte of 54 Camden street, oecame the bride last night of David Tulloch. Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David Tulloch of New York city. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Winfield C.
Snodgrass officiating. Mr. and Mrs.
Tulloch will live at Garwood.

The engagement is announced of Miss.

Marguerite Natilie Mangold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Mangold of Twentieth street. Flushing: to William F.
Flannery of Warburton avenue, Bayside.

Miss Mangold is well known in musical miss a member of the senior class at Barnard College. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement is announced of Miss Marguerite Natilie Mangold of Twentieth street. Flushing: to William F.
Flannery of Warburton avenue, Bayside.
Miss Mangold is well known in musical
miss a member of the senior class at Barnard College. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement is announced of Miss
Marguerite Natilie Mangold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Mangold of Twentieth street. Flushing: to William F.
Flannery of Warburton avenue, Bayside.

Faus--Fern. Edith Fern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

G. T. ARANYI WEDS MRS. GOULD TO SELL MISS VAIL CONVERSE $2,000,000 JEWELS

Ceremony at Home of Bride's Will Act as Auctioneer at Allied Bazaar and Promises Many Bargains.

OTHER WEDDINGS OF DAY TO-DAY IS WOMAN'S DAY

Mrs. Grovene Vail Converse, daughter f Mrs. G. Vail Converse, was married of Georges T. Aranyi of Budapest yeserday afternoon at the home of her mother, 43 East Seventy-eighth street, in the presence of a small gathering f relatives and intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Hughes of St. Patrick's Cathedral, and it took place before a temporary altar to which the bride walked with her brother, James Vall Converse. The bride wore a gown of white silk falle embroidered with pearls and made with along court train trimmed with lace and embellished with orange blossoms. It was the gown that had been worn by her mother when a bride. The vell was of white net and fell over the entire length of the costume, and the bridal bouquet was of Ascension lilies.

Mrs. George J. Gould, auctioneer, will put up jewels valued at $2.000,000 at the Alied Bazaar in Grand Central Palace to-night and if she doesn't sell them it will because her voice or the purses of the crowd give out. The jewels, placed in the Theatre Verdure of the B. F. B. Permanent Blind Fund by Dreleer, have been one of the sights of the bazaar, and it is said that wonderful bargains in diamond necklaces, emerald tiaras, &c., will be offered by Auctioneer Gould. The secretary of the B. F. B. Fund was busy all day yesterday sending telegrams to all women suspected of having money, telling them of the chance to stock up their jewel cases.

Mrs. George J. Gould, auctioneer, will put up jewels valued at $2.000,000 at the Alied Bazaar in Grand Central Palace to-night and if she doesn't sell them it will because her voice or the purses of the crowd give out. The jewels, premanent Blind Fund by Dreleer, have been one of the sight accetonight and if she doesn't sell them it will because her voice or the purses of the crowd give out. The jewels, pursely accetoning the pursely accetoning the pursely accetoning to the crowd give out. The jewels, pursely accetoning the pursely accetoning the pursely accetoning the pursely accetoning the pursely acce Mrs. George J. Gould, auctioneer, will of the charme was of Ascension lilies.

Mrs. James Vail Converse was the matron of honor. She wore a costume of pink charmeuse and chiffon combined with embroidered net, also a lighorn hat faced with pale blue chiffon and trimmed with pink roses. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Bobble Serrell and Mona Bracken were the flower girls. They wore Kate Greenaway costumes and poke bonnets, carrying baskets of spring flowers.

Count Otto Salm-Hoogstraeten acted as best man, and the ushers were Aylette Euckner. Nils Florman and Guy Converse, young brother of the bride.

A small reception followed the wedding ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Aranyi left later on their wedding trip. They will live at 43 East Seventy-eighth street in the fall.

STEVENSON—GRENET.

Ceremony Is Performed in Ball-room of the Majestic.

Mrs. Gould will be assisted by several other prominent women. Marice and Florence Walton will do some dances in brand new costumes, and the Bill-more orchestra will accompany Mrs. Gould's efforts with low music.

This is Woman's Day at the Palace. Those in charge announce that they will try to have it especially attractive. In honor of the sex which has suffered and ascerificed so much in the great war. In the tea room on the second floor the 4:30 o'clock concert will include songs by Maggie Teyte, Leon Rannay—with Maurice La Farge as accompanist—Le Trio de Lutice, and Miss Lorraine Wyman. Miss Wyman will sing some old English ballads just as she learned them in the mountains of Kentucky, where they are handed down from generation to generation. Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Salzedo are in charge of these tea garden concerts, which have been among the chief attractions of the bazaar.

British Programme Thursday.

British Programme Thursday.

fair waitresses. And they have Miss Jamet Scudder, sculptor, and Mrs. Ben-Jamin Guinness on the job continually to see that in the tea garden everything published in New York.

Miss Anne Morgan, fresh from the Chicago conventions, passed yesterday at the booth of the Vacation War Relief Malvina Hoffman and Eva Wandell. Sepia prints of Mrs. Whitney's prize winner, "The Titanic Head," will be sold winner, "The Titanic Head," will be sold with her autographs for $2 each. "A Faun," by Mr. Aiken: "Pan," by Mr. MacMonnies, and a miniature of Anna V. Hyatt's statue of Joan of Are will also be disposed of.

also be disposed of.
Mrs. Whitney's two children, Marjorie and Barbara, will sell reproductions of bas reliefs of themselves on horseback and many prints of famous sculpture works, including those of Mrs. Whitney, Miss Joan Sawyer and her partner, Theatre de Verdure.

Mr. Duveen, through the interest of Mrs. Cornelius C. Cuyler, has presented for sale at the bazaar some beautiful works of art which came from the sale of the J. Pierpont Morgan collection.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gross man have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith Grossman, to Roselle Park, N. J., June 10.—Miss Justus Gruen of this city. Miss Gross arne Hunte of 54 Camden street, oe-Barnard College. No date has been may the head of the senior class at circles in Queens and as a worker in the Church of St. Andrew of Avelino, Flushing. The wedding will be cele-

Adding Academy commencement, Adelburg, Pa.

Adelphi Academy commencement, Adelphi Hall, S.P. M.

United Real Estate Owners Association, meeting, Hotel Astor, S:15 P. M.

Class of 1918. West Point, will have its charles Wolf of Jersey City was man.

Adelphi Academy commencement, Adelburg, Pa.

Manhattan—Mrs. Snowden Smith, Syracuse: Mr. and Mrs. Craderick R. Brown,

West Point, will have its furlough dinner in the Hotel Astor, midfurlough dinner in the Hotel Astor, midnight.

Alumni of West Point, classes of 1921, 1836 and 1836, will have dinners in the Hotel Astor, 7 P. M.

Capt. and Mrs. C. E. Harley, Washingtonington, D. C.

His turn to knock somebody into a cocked hat.

FIRST EDITION SOLD

Four Volumes, Illustrated by Cruikshank, Bring Top Price at Anderson's.

charge of the same booth to-morrow.

She will be assisted by Frederick MacMonnies, Paul Bartlett, Robert Aiken, Malving Hoffman and Eyn Wandell.

Levy of Lances and Lightherse in the levy of Lances and Lightherse in the

Mr. Rudoiph, will dance to-night in the leries, Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth prederick Bauer for $275. J. G. Manuel purchased a camel's hair Keshon Sarook rug of rose, gold and blue for $190.

Other purchasers at the sale were Mrs. Martin Quinn, Mrs. L. W. Faber and J. M. Heifert. The approximate sales yesterday were $9,674.

ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS.

Claridge—J. W. Mendel, Gloversville, N., Claridge—J. W. Mendel, Gloversville, N., C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hicks, Bridgeport, conn.; Richard L. Page, Omaha, Neb. McAlpin—Dr. Carlos Vocos Gimenes. Buenos Ayres: Frank A. Cressy. Jr., Mo-desto, Cal.: Mrs. Philip A. Errett, Ottawa, In New York To-day.

Addelphi Academy commencement, Adelthi Hall. 8 P. M.
United Real Estate Owners.

BEREA COLLEGE ASKS AID.

of Southern Mountains.

BEREA. Ky., June 12 .- In order that the education of the women of the Southern mountain section of the United States may progress as rapidly as that of the men Berea College, which is supported by church people of all de-Price at Anderson's.

Inominations, will set about to do not the work for the women of these States. This announcement was made to-day by President William Goodell Frost, who substitutely received training at the college and fully 400 were turned away for Illustrations are by Ross Turner in colors and gold.

A Queen Elizabeth autograph, dated August 4, 1598, attached to a document of historical importance relative to a levy of Lances and Lighthorse in the County of Surrey was bought by E. Tomkins for $137.

The total sales yesterday afternoon.

SULTANA CARPET BRINGS $275.

SULTANA CARPET BRINGS $275.

Sile Sale Nets $9,674 at First Day's Session.

A Queen Elizabeth autograph, dated August 4, 1598, attached to a document of historical importance relative to the Heavenly Rest to-morrow, gave his fare well bachelor dinner last evening at the Harvard Club. Among his guests were dear and his associates. Thus it happens that there are new specialties to be seen every week. Lucille Cavanagh was not dancing in the Follies last night as she was a process of the programme of the rest constantly introduced to fill in the pauses between the fun of Lew Kelly and his associates. Thus it happens that there are new specialties to be seen every week. Lucille Cavanagh was not dancing in the Follies last night as she was a processor.

Mr. and Mrs. Julien Townsend Davies have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Marria and the processor of the programme, which had every to the programme are to the programme, which had every to the programme are to the programme. They have been banned forever are to be marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Marria Davies to the programme are to the programme. They have been banned forever are to be marriage of their daughter. And the produced to fill in the pauses between the fun of the Heavenly Rist Gordon William Produced to fill in the pauses between the fun of the Heavenly Rist Gordon William Produced to fi tion. There will be offered for sale gar-den and summer hats for children, antiques, pet animals, preserves, fancy articles and flowers. The sale will be to the Art of the Screen. antiques, pet annuals, present antiques, present

Morgan at Westbury, L. I., an enter-tainment of amateurs and professionals. Whether or not the drama of Shake-followed by tea and general dancing, will be given in aid of the Country Home for Convalescent Babies at Sea Cliff. L.

JUNE NOVELTIES IN VAUDEVILLE HOUSES

Atmosphere of Art at the of Puck. Palace: Colonial Holds Popularity.

for of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Berlin, Germany, was married on Saturday night to Edwin Du Pay Sinsabaugh of Boulevard, Beckhurst, by the Rev. Hugo Hoffman.

SCHMITTBERGER—RICHTER.

SCHMITTBERGER—RICHTER.

SCHMITTBERGER—RICHTER.

SCHMITTBERGER—RICHTER.

Gay by giving the hair from their mouths. They seldom found.

A collected set of the first editions of the works of Jane Austen was sold to Scribner's for $310. The volumes are uniformly and richly bound.

Another interesting donation was a gold Mongolian bracelet said to be over 1,000 years old.

The first automobile award at the process of inlay in bookbinding, was provided at once."

The people of the immense section the works of Jane Austen was sold to Scribner's for $310. The volumes are uniformly and richly bound.

A binding by Samuel Mearne, royal in the United States who are pure Americans and prolific in the old tractive number on the programme For their interests which include to the works of Jane Austen was sold to Scribner's for $310. The volumes are uniformly and richly bound.

A binding by Samuel Mearne, royal in the United States who are pure Americans and prolific in the old or the Cussal dances are appear to the trunced over the money received for a package of valuable combings and two the works of Jane Austen was sold to Scribner's for $310. The volumes are uniformly and richly bound.

A binding by Samuel Mearne, royal in the United States who are pure Americans and prolific in the old or the cussal dances are of those with composers as Berodin and Stratic Washer and the trunced over the money received for a collected set of the first editions of the works of Jane Austen was sold to Scribner's for $310. The volumes are uniformly and richly bound.

A binding by Samuel Mearne, royal in the United States who are pure an education; now it is to take care of those with composers as Berodin and Stratic Washer and the Works of Jane Austen was sold to get the work of the works of Jane Austen was sold to get the work of the work of Jane Austen was sold to ge donated to her booth, Les Sens de Lettres Francaise. Tickets will be on sale at Booth 21.

Having raised $2,700 by her work in the authors' and artists' booth at the Allied Bazaar on Saturday, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney has asked to be put in charge of the same booth to-morrow.

A copy of the St. Dunstan edition of the Summer.

Dr. and Mrs. James Henry Lancashire will give a dinner this evening at their will give a dinner this evening at their will give a dinner this evening at their data does not mean that there is six occurring to the fifteen copies issued, was bought for an out of town collector for $200. The an out of town collector

Session.

A Sultana carpet of soft rose color was sold yesterday at the Silo Art Galleries, Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street, to W. A. De Wolf for $275. Mr. De Wolf also purchased several other items.

An Ossiam carpet of a rich rose field. At Greentree, the country blace of the country home of nile green and topaz borders with figures of Rhodian lilles, was bought by Frederick Bauer for $275. J. G. Manuel Frederick Bauer for $275. J. G. Manuel Green Richert Garden with figure of Rhodian lilles, was bought by Frederick Bauer for $275. J. G. Manuel Green Richert Garden were on the prospection of Rhodian lilles, was bought by Frederick Bauer for $275. J. G. Manuel Green Richert Garden were on the prospection of Rhodian lilles, was bought by Frederick Bauer for $275. J. G. Manuel Green Richert Garden were on the prospection of Rhodian lilles, was bought by Frederick Bauer for $275. J. G. Manuel Green Richert Garden were on the prospection of Rhodian lilles, was bought by George Robinson, who does not be determined acts. They have been banned forever by George Robinson, who does not be death of the by George Robinson, who does not be death of the who were in "A Round of Pleasure" at the Winter Garden, were on the prospection of the Winter Garden

pital and the Nassau County Associa- "MACBETH" ON FILM AT GAIETY.

Sir Herbert Tree is an actor who is ould S. Alexander.

On the afternoon of July 3 at the Then the version of "Macbeth" which has been prepared for the film is not

I. Among the patronesses are Mmes. of pictures which are as remarkably skil-George Whitney, Herbert M. Harriman, ful as all that the Triangle produces are William Guthrie, Stanley Mortimer, Her-likely to be. For at least a week these bert Pratt, Joseph E. Davis, Beekman interesting pictures will be shown twice with the Milliam Goadby Loew, Edwin D. Morgan and Miss May Bird. Tickets. Wiews of the war in Italy are now on at $5 each may be obtained of Mrs. Charles Steels at Westbury, L. Charles Steels at Westbury, L.

the battles of importance and many of Swift & Company's sales of Beef in New Tork City for the week ending Saturday. June 10th, averaged as follows: Domestic Beef, 14.25 cents per pound.—dog.

NEWEST "FOLLIES" HAS REACHED TOWN

King Henry VIII .....

was an audience that packed the New Amsterdam Theatre to witness the first performance of this year's edition of the Folies, which was by way of being the teath.

That it was fully the equal of any of its predecessors was the decision of few who saw it last night. That it exceeded some of them in elaboration was another general opinion. Then ill spread that the second act was unchessperior to the first, atthough there ere then episodes which could not possible have corresponded to the intention of of the description of the description of the first, atthough there is the first of which Joseph Urban was the description of the first of t sodes; but this is tercentenary year. So Bert Williams was there as Othello, Ida Claire played Juliet, Bernard Granville was Mark Antony, while Fanny Dane of William C. Fields. It was the quiet Sam Hardy who appeared as Henry VIII., while all the heroines of Shakespeare were represented by the Flo Ziegfeid chorus.

But there was no more Shakespeare in the second act apart from the palace of Puck. There was then a travesty of the Ballet Russe in "Scheherrade" and all the popular cinema favorites of the day were represented by the pretty women of the company. There were such well known film actresses as Mark.

Col. Lawrence Brokenia of RimaBroklyn.

William J. Van Buskirk.

William J. Van Buskirk, 73 years old, a descendant of John Van Buskirk, one of the Mayflower pilgrims, died on Saturday at his home, 390 Twelfth street, Brooklyn. He served in the civil war with the Seventy-second Regiment, New York Volunteers, and for thirty years was a foreman of construction in the Erosklyn navy yard. He was a member of Rankin Post, No. 10, G. A. R.; the Brooklyn Volunteer Fire Department and the Foresters of America. He is survived by a son and daughter.

Col. Lawrence Brooklyn.

Of the Foreign Perfect Non-Refillable Bottle Company and the Oil Furnace and Engineering Company at 60 Liberty street. Mr. Floyd-Jones was born in New York, a son of the late William and Caroline A. Floyd-Jones. He was unmarried.

David S. Mold.

David S. Mold.

David S. Mold, proprietor of the Rock Lake Hotel on the Sound at Willets Point, died vesterday morning at his home in Whitestone. He was an active member of Cornucopia Lodge, F. and A. M. He is survived by a son and daughter.

women of the company. There were such well known film actresses as Mary Pickford, Geraldine Farrar and Theda Bara. Then there followed the inevitable The wedding of Miss Eleanor Sawer Purdy, department of Mrs. William Halses, and for Same Purdy, to Francis Mathone Blods, set on for Mrs. Same Blodget of Eleanor Fareward. R. L. took place yesterday at the eleanor half angels Church, the Rev. S. De Lancey Townsend, rector of the furth, officiating. Only relatives and the friends witnessed the furth with fermion at the remaining a few intimate friends witnessed the fermion and there was no reception.

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence Marie Axmann, daughter of Mrs. Hugo Axmann of Merin.**

**Miss Florence

chares and her graceful agility and Iva chare was as usual fairly decorative and altogether colorless. It took Fannie Brice in some of her specialties to add a strong note of humor to her scenes, although there was plenty of fun in the burlesque of the Ballet Russe with Bert Williams, Don. Barrilay a require from Williams, Don Barclay, a recruit from production of the originals. Then the introduction of trict Court in Detroit, died to-day at his the originals. Then the introduction of the moving picture actors added a scene of genuine humor which perhaps reached its climax in Fannie Brice's imitation of Theda Bara, who will be unknown to the audience that watches the play tonight and for the future. Mr. Ziegfeld's Follies have their usual possibilities. But to bring them up to the high standard he has set he must get to work immediately. But he will. He has never failed to make them good enough to last to make them good enough to last months in New York; so there is eason why he should not be equal-

FRANCES STARR IN NEW PLAY. Con "Little Lady in Blue" Produced for First Time in Atlantic City.

Apollo Theatre here to-night. The play is by Horace Hodges and T. Wigney Percyval, authors of "Grumpy."

Miss Starr is supported by a company Wesel.

FERDINAND WESEL, who died in Brooklyn September 20, 1912, left a net estate of $122,853.32, the bulk of which goes to two sons, Ferdinand and Hans which includes Jerome Patrick, George Giddens, Frank Kemble Cooper, Carl Sauerman, Frederick Graham, T. Wigney Percyval, Horace Braham, Adrian H. Rosley, Henry Travers, Roland Clara L. Robinson, a niece, $10,000 each

Plays and Players. Herbert Tree's film version of "Mac-mond to the Galety Theatre ves-y It has been altered considerably its first showing at the Rialto its first showing at the second of Charles Dillingham's Chin' company ended in Chicago day night and the company, including and Mrs. Fred Stone and David Monters, have returned to New York appleting a tour which took in all the cities east of the Rocky Mountains, members of Henry W. Savage's "Every members of Henry W. Savage's "Every members of Henry W. Savage's "Every the China of the Rocky Mountains, members of Henry W. Savage's "Every the Wynn, Marie Dressler and Anna

Alited Bazaar.
Last night was a particularly brilliant one at the Ziegfeld Midnight Frolic over the New Amsterdam Theatre. William Rock and Frances White made their first appearance. Will Rogers returned as amusing as ever after a short absence.
Other newcomers were Mysterious Milo and Fred Nice and Ada May Weeks.

MACPHERSON KENNEDY.

Former Chairman of Stock Exchange Was 75 Years Old.

HAS REACHED TOWN

This Time Shakespeare and His Birthday Are Made Subjects of Fun.

The Follies of 1916"—At the New Amsterdam Theatre.

The Follies of 1916"—At the New Amster

JOHN WARREN RAYNER.

feld which stands at the head of the list. For it is always the Ziegfeld quality in the first time of entertainment not only alive but immensely appreciated and profitable during such a long period.

Shakespeare Comes in Now.

Probably for the first time Shakespeare plays a part in this series of comic episodes; but this is tercentenary year. So Bert Williams was there as Othello, lida Claire played Julict, Bernard Gran heery, County Tyrone, Ireland, in March, 1841, and came to this country in 1865.
William J. Van Buskirk.

He was ordained at Our Lady of Angels Seminary, Niagara, in June, 1881. In 1891 he was appointed successor to Father Joseph McGuire at St. Joseph's Church, Hewlett, L. L., and later founded St. Joseph's Church He leaves two brothers, Hugh McKenna of Kilmahoft Williams J. Van Buskirk.

William J. Van Buskirk.

James White, a cotton goods broker Many Clever Performers.

There were the usual number of Hudson street hospital said he believed lever performers to add to the interest discover performers to add to the interest Mr. White was a victim of heart discover many scenes. Ann Pennington case. Mr. White was formerly associated with H. B. Claffin & Co., but en-

Connecticut, died in his home here to

WATERBURY, Conn., June 12.- Dennis

WILLS AND APPRAISALS. ATLANTIC CITY, June 12.—David Belasco presented Frances Starr in a new comedy. "Little Lady in Blue," at the $12,740 in enortgages.

Rushton, Lucy Beaumont and Diana CHARLES HALL, who died Septemb Dischen. CHARLE. And was a member of Charles Hall's Sons, manufacturers of boils and wrenches, left $217.272 to his wife, Nancy Hall. He had 1,000 sharps of Corn Froducts Refining stock worth $83.500, and his interest in his firm was appraised at $64.470 in his firm was appraised at 164,470.

PHILII. OCHSENREITER, wh died at Whitestone, N. Y., on May 26, left an ostate of $100,000, according to a perition flied vesterday by his widow. Amanda Ochsenreiter of Bay Ninth street and Cropsey avenue Brooklyn. Mrs. Ochsenreiter seeks letters of administration, her husband having died intestate. There are two grandchildren.

A Memorial Service in honour of the late Lord Kitchener will be held, at the request of the British Societies, in Trinity Church, Broadway and Wall Street, at twelve o'clock noon on Wednesday, the 14th June All interested are invited to attend.

ACTON DAVIES DIES; NOTED AS A CRITIC

where Mr. Davies had a country ho Funeral services will be private.

BORN.

McKinney (nee Jean Webster), daughter, June 10, 1916

MARRIED. GLAZEBROOK - KING -On Saturday, AZEBROOK KING On Saturday, June 10, 1816, at Christ Church, New Hrighton, N. Y., by the Rev. Duncan H. Browne, Lucy Bronson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bronson King,

to Otta Allan Glazebrook, Jr DIED.

DOREMUS -- Entered into life eternal on Sunday, June 11, 1916, Wilbur Lin-coin Dorenna, beloved husband of E. Lulu Dorenus Funeral services at his late residence, 810 Washington avenue. Brooklyn, Tuesday, 8 P. M. Interment private Wednesday at Greenwood.

DUDLEY .- On June 10, 1916, at her home, 159 Willow street, Brooklyn, Charlotte Gezina Duckwitz, wife of the late Will-tam H. Dudley, M. D., in her eighty-third year.

Funeral services will be held at Grace Church, corner of Grace Court and Hicks street, Brooklyn, on Tuesday, June 13, 1916, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It is requested that no flowers be sent. FELLOWS.—On Saturday. June 10, in Greenwich, Conn., William Gordon, son of the late George A. Fellows, in the of the late George A reliews, in the fifty-seventh year of his age.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday morning, June 14, at 11 o'clock, in St. Bartholomew's Church, Madison avenue and Forty-fourth street. It is requested that no flowers be sent. McKenna, age 75 years, at the rectary of the Church of St Joachim, Cedar-hurst, L. I., beloved brother of Felix McKenna of 224 Lincoln place, Brooklyn. Solemn mass of requiem Wednesday, the 14th, at 10:30 A. M. Trains leave Fathush avenue and Pennsylvania Station et 9 A. M. McKINNEY .- Jean Webster, wife of Glenn Ford McKinney, on Sunday, June 11, 1916, at New York city. Funeral private. Please omit flowers. MICHAEL.—Suddenly, at Orange, N. J., Sunday, June 11, 1916, Oscar Michael, in his fifty-fifth year Funeral services at his late residence, 15 Berkeley avenue, Wednesday morning.

June 14, 11 o'clock. Interment at con-venience of the family. REED - Bentamin C. aged 65 Services
THE FUNERAL CHURCH '11 West Twenty-third (Campbell Building), Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock.

ERNEY -The American Irish Historical Society announces with regret the death on June 11, 1916, of Dennis H. Tierney of Waterbury, Conn., a member and exvice-president of this Society for the State of Connecticut.
The funeral will be held at Waterbury

Tuesday, June 18, at 10 o'clock President-General. EDWARD H. DALY. Secretary-General

VOGRICH .- Max Vegrich, after a short illness, in the sixty-fifth year of his Riverside Drive, on Tuesday, June 18.

WORRALL.—On June 12. at Hewlett, L. I. Petera B. second son of Frank I and Frances Sloan Worrall, in his seventh UNDERTAKERA.

PAR FRANK E CAMPBELL WEST